My Joy is the exploration of the Tarot with others, that we, together, may discover our Paths of Light. It is my hope that as we All come more into our own Light that others will be attracted by its loving pull of possibility. In this way we all become agents of change. We can then take the responsibility of creating a new paradigm of Love, Peace and Abundance for All.

News: I am aware, more than ever this month, that the messages I bring forth are for a particular collective of which you are a part. We are such privileged souls at this time. Most of us are not in a refugee camp. Most of us have some sort of financial support or a family who cares for us. We have the time for breath that the New Moon message speaks of. We can choose between Fear and Joy. And yet, there are those who find Joy in the worst situations. How is that possible? I would say they have the knowledge that something far greater than the small self is Present. That our innate being, our Soul, is here to experience as intensely as possible. And, though we may not “like” this experience, there is purpose and opportunity here.

My life continues pretty much as it always has with classes and clients and my own ongoing studies. Terra Nova with Pamela Eakins. Spending time with Paul Selig and The Guides. A short course and chanting with Krishna Das. The opportunities online are endless and affordable.

July 11 and 12, I will be in Willow Creek doing an Introduction to Evolutionary Tarot and my Court Card Workshop. If interested, call 530-629-4300.

All my classes continue, sometimes in my Zoom room and sometimes in the Garden Studio with all the necessary precautions. Be Well in Body and in Spirit!

Enjoy the New Moon Tribal Message for all of you in the Soul Collective of my email list.

I encourage you to use the questions I created from the New Moon Reading for your own Tarot reading. Discover your individual contribution to the whole.

Message for the New Moon of May 2020

We would speak of these depths of Sorrow, of Joy, of diving deeper, wider, into Feeling, until finally, you begin to swim and flow with the energy of the moment, the stream of existence. This stream, at times, may seem fiery, burning, painful and at other times, quiet, cool and soothing. You are asked to allow the vacillation, the seeming extreme of Feeling so that you may find the warm center of Being where effort is not called for, where you are simply in relaxed relation to What Is, right now. The direction you are headed in this stream may seem perhaps disastrous. But the outcome is not known and you are not stuck here. The good news is that you are moving, evolving, Becoming at a fast rate.

This Becoming enables you to swim and flow through the changes happening on the planet, in your communities and at home.

At this time the Breath becomes all important. Breath, that is always with you. The Breath that Is you. Breath is the only constant so can then be a comfort, a reminder that all is well in this moment. There is irony here, yes. The virus is all about breathing. And, at the same time it is teaching you, metaphorically, how to breathe. How to live fully with your breath in the moment. Notice when you feel fear, how the breath shortens, tightens. This tightening is not healthy for your beautiful lungs which need deep, full breaths of clean, vibrant air to function correctly. Your lungs need a relaxed breath to function optimally.

Notice how fear feels in the body. Breathe in Fear... Now, breathe in Joy. How do you breathe in Joy? Is there not an expansion in the lungs? A taking in of more air? Sit with this idea a moment. Notice the differences. There is opportunity here.

Your lives are simpler now. You have time to breathe, to be present to your environment, to notice how you are breathing, to notice if you are in fear, in stress. You now have the opportunity to attend to your breath. You have the time to just Be. This opportunity of time, of learning to be present to your breath, is preparation for the next phase of your evolution as you all come closer to the realization of what and who you are.

Breathe. Be aware of how your body reacts to events with your breathing. Be aware of how a situation, the news or something you are reading is causing a tightening with your breath. Come back to your breath. Come back to your Self. Come back to the center of the stream of neither hot nor cold. Relax. Stop struggling and be carried forward by your relaxed Breath.

New Moon Reading Questions

I ask what We, as a collective of souls, can learn from the message I received

Reading for the Tribe for the New Moon of May, 2020

Card One

A card for where are we in the stream,
where we are in our evolution.

Card Two

A card for our breathing right now.
How are we being affected by the events?

Card Three

How to breathe in more Joy?

Card Four

What is the opportunity of being carried forward by our relaxed Breath?

Card One

A card for where are we in the stream,
where we are in our evolution.

Oh, I love it. The Eight of Swords is the same card we had in this position last month. Our minds continue to struggle but an important thing to notice about the Thoth card is the astrological attributions at the bottom and top of the card. Jupiter in Gemini. I am not an astrologer but I know that Jupiter is expansion and Gemini can be distracted thinking. So this becomes the perfect card for swimming in the center of the stream. There is clarity. Our minds are being challenged expansively, while at the same time, we are distracted by our doubt and fear. Notice the word Interference at the bottom. See how the small mind of daggers constantly interferes with the clarity and strength of the two larger swords. So yes, we are struggling to find our center, our breath...

Card Two

A card for our breathing right now.
How are we being affected by the events?

Our lives are being turned upside down as shown so beautifully by The Hanged One. We think we had nothing to do with these events. It just happened. But The Hanged One is a deliberate action of surrendering to circumstances because we know we cannot continue as “normal.” We know that how we have been living our lives is unsustainable and that we must change. It feels painful, as though we are sacrificing ourselves. Notice the figure is nailed to the matrix. But, we know this sacrifice is necessary for the health of the planet and our evolution. So we are learning to relax into it, learning to breath deep and long in the chrysalis of metamorphosis as we shed the old skin of our existence.

Queen of Wands

Card Three

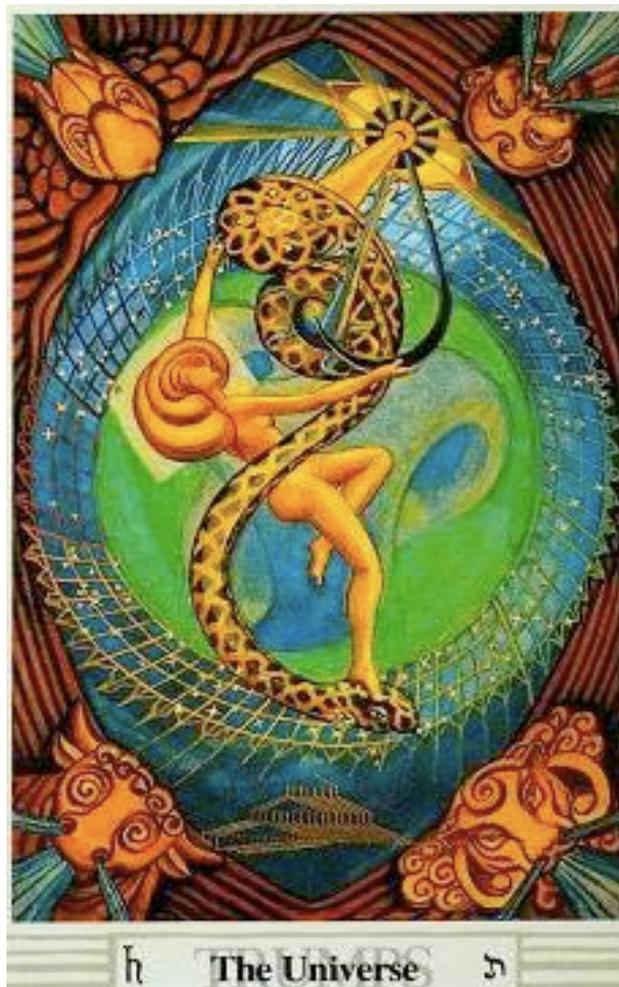

How to breathe in more Joy?

Breathe in our Queen of Wands. Wands are our fiery, Divine aspect. Our Breath of Life which sustains us. This Queen is the powerful essence of our Cosmic Being. This is who and what we are at our deepest core. Wands are the Joy of existence, the exhilaration of the journey, the infinite creative possibilities. So breathe in Joyful outcomes that we have yet to dream of. Breathe in sunlight, birdsong and ocean roar. Breathe in the scintillating, sparkling breathe of Life itself. Feel yourself expand beyond who and what you ever imagined you were capable. Allow your vast Being to expand and fill you with the excitement of what is yet to come.

Card Four

What is the opportunity of being carried forward by our relaxed Breath?

The World or Universe is the ultimate card of the Tarot. The culmination of the Great Work of metamorphosis. If we can come into our whole Selves, integrating all of who we are within and embracing Nature as just another interconnected species, we then have the opportunity of evolving with our world into something quite wonderful for ALL. Look at the evolution of this reading. From the mind caught in its web, Eight of Swords. To the surrendering to this moment with our breath of being, The Hanged One. To the realization of our eternal, fiery Self, Queen of Wands, which enables us to become the multidimensional Being that we are, The Universe. Our future is very bright if we can surrender to this process of Becoming. We can do this! Thank you all for swimming with me in these amazing times.

The Universe

Now it's your turn.
Do this month's reading for yourself to see where you, as an individual, can contribute to the whole.

As always I welcome your ideas, questions and comments.

culmination of the journey, the portal into the new world. Notice how amorphous it is but if we can come into our whole selves, embracing all that we are as a interconnected with everyone and all Nature, we will Oh then have the ability to create and evolve ourselves and our world into something quite wonderful for ALL. Look at the evolution of this spread from the mind caught in its web: Eight of Swords. The surrounding to this moment with our breath of being, The Hanged One, to our the realization of our eternal fiery Self which enables us to become the multidimensional Being that we are who has the power to create new healthy worlds for all .
